

News 2011

November 1st, 2011: Autumn

It was an unusually warm autumn. We worked a lot of outside and built new entrances to the reception and common rooms. Now it's easier for disabled guests to enter and at the same time we think it looks very nice.

August 26th, 2011: Nice summer, cabins well-visited

The summer in Värmland was quite sunny again. Our new cabins were appreciated, guests enjoyed the many opportunities our surroundings have to offer. In august we had an extraordinary season for mushrooms and lingonberries!

In our picture gallery you can see some of our guest's impressions.

January 14th, 2011: Much sun and plenty of snow

We've got plenty of sun and snow for skiing and other exciting winter activities. The ice on our lakes is thick and wonderful for ice fishing. Look at the lovely photos we took during the week!
