september 30th, 2013: Cabin 5 in renewed splendor

During fall, we renovated cabin no. 5 and parts of the main building.

First reaction of our guests on the 'new' cottage : "Very cozy and comfortable!"

We'd enjoy to spend our vacation here, too...

july 31st, 2013: A warm and sunny summer

Summer was warm, sunny and unusually dry this year.

During six weeks without rain the pool was the main attraction of the campsite. The beaver safari and our boats were very popular, too. Icecream consumption was higher than ever before.

Frank rode a horse for the first time since 18 years. The horse tolerated him - maybe because it is a cold-blooded one...

april 10th, 2013: Award 'Innovator of the year'!

SCR, the Swedish Camping Owners Association, awarded this year's members at a gala dinner at the the Annual General Meeting in Västervik. We were among the winners. This made us very happy!

'Innovator of the Year' this year are Frank Feuker and Dorothee Gebhardt on Camping E45 Överbyn in Torsby - the first environmentally classified campsite now places itself into the niche as a climate neutral campsite.' (Source: SCR, Photo: Niklas Maupoix, SCR) february 22nd, 2013: They can't get enough!

Strange lights wandered around the campsite tonight.

They belonged to Swedish guests who simply could not get enough of the great cross-country skiing conditions and glided through the glittering snow until well into the evening.
